I am so grateful to you and to your colleagues whom you joined hands to assist me to be at school studying.

I am so proud for that parental love that you are showing me.

My life is good and studies are going on well and now we are in our third term, and nowadays I read my books seriously because in end of third term Exams I want to be promoted in the next class.

In our country the weather it has been too hot and it spoiled most of the cassava plants and sweet potatoes plant in the garden and their yield is very poor and most of the cassava stems are bitter and cassava flour is more expensive.

But in this late of september the rain started raining and every body is busy in the garden digging.

We are alright at home and my mother bought a young male goat and we keep it at home.

Lovely Ivana, I end this letter by wishing all of you a nice coming Christmas and happy New year 2010.

Good bye

All best regards from Najjuko Rebecca.
